Financial Risk Management

A Never-ending Challenges to Business

About the Course

Fraud is a trillions of dollars Business that takes its profits from anybody and everybody throughout the World, sometimes without us knowing about it or realising it is happening.

Arguably the most prominent business challenge is maximising its profits to ensure that they stay afloat and sustain itself, whilst, Fraudsters eat away from the inside, slowly bringing the company to its knees. This training course is aimed at the delegates and their organisation the knowledge and the tools to help achieve this.

This Fraud Prevention, Detection, and Investigation training course will facilitate the delegates what Fraud is all about, taking through fascinating facts and case studies, explaining why people from all walks of life get involved, looking at The Triangle of Fraud and its three sides coming together to push people into committing this damaging Crime. Then learn what to look for, those little signs that the Fraud is or may be alive and well within your organisation. Finally, how to effectively investigate the signs and if you confirm your worst nightmare, be able to stop it and cut out the people involved.

Core Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, the delegates will be able to:

- Evaluate and challenge fraud risks
- Understand how fraud is perpetrated and who does it
